—IN—

The Prices

—OF—

SINGER & CO.'S

STANDARD MACHINES,

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $75.

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

LEATHER WORK,

In Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

☞ Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

☞ All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis.

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

SINGER & CO.'S
STANDARD MACHINES,

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $75.

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.
Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

LEATHER WORK,

In Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.
We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.
We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best, The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines; A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.
Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.
☞ Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.
☞ All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis.

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.
The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.
The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

The Removal of Gen. Fremont.

At last, after many weeks labor in preparing the public mind, Gen. Fremont has been removed. If this had been done after the war department had obtained satisfactory information that Fremont was either incapable or corrupt, in a quiet manner, in the usual way, the public would have been satisfied, until a court martial had revealed the whole truth. But the cowardly and sneaking manner in which charges have been made against him, by the secretary of war and his clerk Thomas, by the associated telegraphic despatches which have the sanction of a government censor, and by presses in the secrets of the war department, are evidences that the commander of the western department is the victim of a conspiracy which has long been organized to put him out of the way for some other reason than because he is incompetent. Somebody at Washington was afraid of him because he was gaining the hearts of the people by prosecuting the war with a vigor too robust and direct to suit the torturous and compromising disposition of mere politicians. Hence his removal.

The cruel manner in which Gen. Fremont has been pursued by his enemies in the rear, while organizing his army and during his march in pursuit of his other braver and more manly foes in front, has culminated at last in depriving him of his command, just on the eve of battle. Even while the rebels attack his sentinels at night, comes an order that he must give up all his cherished plans and labors, and turn his back upon the field on which he had hoped to convict his enemies of the slanders so lavishly heaped upon him. Could they not give him this single opportunity to redeem his name from the odium cast upon it by falsehood and detraction?

The touching devotion of his army to him on this trying occasion is an evidence far more weighty as to his ability to command and of the faithful and competent discharge of his duties, than any thing else that could have been offered. His soldiers and officers know him and are good judges of capacity. And his noble appeal to them to continue their support to their new commander, (although he is a bitter enemy,) shows that he is ready now as ever to forget self, in discharging his whole duty to his country.

We deeply regret the course pursued towards Gen. Fremont. The public mind is everywhere exasperated in view of its injustice, and we much fear an injury has been inflicted upon the cause of the country which time will hardly efface. It leads us to fear that cowardice, imbecility and treachery are characteristics of at least a portion of the administration as it is now constituted. Apprehending this where can we place our confidence.

THE FREMONT PURCHASE OF ARMS.—The charge of Adjutant-General Thomas about Gen. Fremont's purchase of arms in Europe, is disposed of by a writer to the New York Tribune, who states, from positive knowledge, that the purchase was 2,000 rifles, 500 revolvers, 8 rifled cannon, with shot and shell, and 2,000,000 percussion caps; and that the rifles were so highly approved that Secretary Cameron sent an order to Mr. Adams and Mr. Dayton to buy 20,000 more of the same kind; that Mr Schuyler, the special agent afterward sent out by the government to buy arms, offered to buy 100,000 rifles of the same pattern, and did buy all he could. Also, that Gen. Fremont paid $16 for the rifles, and wanted to buy 100.000 more, and could have bought them at the same price, but was not permitted by the government; and that they have since been sold by other parties to the government at $27 each.

The arms which Gen. Fremont did buy, amounted to but $50,000 or $60,000; and an Adjutant-General ought to know better than to give currency in his official report to a story that somebody wrote, that on this purchase his share of the profits was $30,000.—Cincinnati Gazette.

Adjutant General Thomas reports that Gen. Fremont has taken the field with insufficient equipment, clothing and transportation for his army. This is a singular specification in a charge against Gen. Fremont. No one knows better than Adjutant General Thomas and the Secretary of War why Gen. Fremont's army is unprovided with the means necessary to its success and efficiency. For two months Gen. Fremont has had no money to purchase equipments; and the department was careful that he should have no credit by telegraphing all over the country that his requisitions had been rejected. If anybody is to be removed for the insufficient equipment of Gen. Fremont's army, or for its suffering or failure in consequence of its want of clothing or means of transportation, it is not Gen. Fremont who should suffer the penalty. Another instance which shows how the zeal of Adjutant General Thomas causes him to scatter in his charges is one which accuses Gen. Fremont in one place of hurrying the purchase and inspection of mules, and in another charges him with incompetency for ordering Gen. Hunter to move with forty one wagons, when Gen. Hunter had but forty mules.—Cincinnati Gazette.

"Henrietta," said a landlord to his new girl, "when there's bad news from Washington, or any bad news, particularly private afflictions, always let the boarders know it before dinner. It may seem strange to you, Henrietta, but such little things make a great difference in eating in the course of a year."

The Election--City and County.

The election was very quiet, and a light vote polled in every locality we have heard from. In the city the total vote is 979.—The result generally is the election of the republican county ticket, every republican assemblyman, and a majority for the republican state ticket, the exact amount of which is not now known.

The following are the returns as far as received, the votes for the different candidates named indicating the general vote for the ticket on which they were running.

City of Janesville.--1st ward: Harvey 175, Ferguson 86. Salomon 161, Billings 88, Allen 10. Bates 140, Richardson 112.

Correspondence of the Daily Gazette.

From the Eighth Regiment.

CAMP BURNSIDE,
PILOT KNOB, Mo., Oct. 31.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Since writing to you last, I have learned from our chief surgeon that the rebels lost in killed at Fredericktown 300. That is what I call a pretty good two hours work. We shall never know how many wounded there were of them. The guns that were taken from them at the fight are now mounted here on the fortifications, and are pointed towards Hardee & Co., who the people here say are coming down on us with 25,000 men soon; but we have some awful rumors here occasionally, and do not of course believe half we hear.

The men are all in good spirits to-day; the regiment is being paid off as I am writing, and the boys all have plenty of money. The most of my company are preparing to send the largest part of their pay home to their families and friends.

There are four of my men in the hospital—two at St. Louis and two at Ironton. Wm. Culton and James Keley are at St. Louis with sore eyes. P. Tifft and Wm. Soper are at Ironton with the measles.—John Carney, a member of my company, was killed accidentally, on Tuesday morning, in the iron furnace here, while witnessing some portion of the machinery in operation. We buried him with military honors yesterday. Col. Murphy has been in St. Louis now for about a week figuring for something, I cannot tell what. There is some talk here of his being made a brigadier general. I hope he will be back soon and order us away from here. The men want to be moving. We have very cold nights here, and warm days; the weather is very dry.

Lieut. King is sick to-day, but nothing serious I think. I still hold my contraband. It suits him well to be a soldier.

W. B. BRITTON,
Co. G, 8th Wis. Vol.

PILOT KNOB, Nov. 1, 1861.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—We have an order to move south to-morrow, with three days' rations. The rebels are congregated again at Greenville, forty miles south of here. We are going down to have an engagement with them, if they stick. I think they will outnumber us this time, according to accounts.

The regiment was paid off yesterday; our company alone sent home twelve hundred dollars to their families and friends, which was mailed to my knowledge. One package was addressed to Thomas Croft containing $387,50, to be distributed among families in Janesville. I think the boys did well. Charles Riker received $24,26, and sent home $25 to his folks. When I return, if I ever do, I will give you an account of our expedition. I understand we are to go to Kentucky when we return. King has got well enough to accompany the expedition.

It is quite cold, and I must close. My best wishes to you all.

Yours, etc., W. B. BRITTON,
Company G, 8th Reg. W. V.

THE BALL'S BLUFF FIGHT.—A careful summing of all the soldiers and officers killed, wounded, and missing, makes the grand total 674. This is rather over one-third of the entire force engaged. The statement of the Richmond papers, that over five hundred prisoners had arrived there, is an exaggeration, a thing usual with the secession press.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 5.

This afternoon's Times has some particulars of the late fight at Gauley Bridge. The engagement was not a general battle, but rather a warm skirmish in which the enemy were repulsed with great loss. The action commenced by the rebels, who opened two batteries on our lines near Gauley Bridge, but though the firing continued all day little or no damage was done—not one man being killed. Late in the day our artillery was brought to bear, and the rebel fire was soon silenced.

A train was fired upon about the same time, some miles up the river, and three men killed. On Friday night Benham's brigade moved down the river to Gauley Bridge and ferried across in a flat boat which the rebels had previously sunk. He moved along the base of the hill upon which the rebel batteries had been planted, intending to go down as far as Loup Creek, three or four miles below, where there is a gap in the mountains, through which is a road leading to the rear of where the rebels are encamped.

Removal of Fremont.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Nov. 3.

Yesterday small bodies of the enemy came within twelve miles of us, and news was received of the approach of their advance, 28,000 strong. Preparations were making to go out and attack them, when Gen. Fremont received the unconditional order from Washington relieving him of his command. Simultaneously came the newspapers announcing the fact. The intelligence spread like wild fire throughout the camps, and created indescribable excitement and indignation. Great numbers of officers signified their intention to resign at once, and many companies laid down their arms declaring they would fight under no one but Fremont. The General spent much of the afternoon expostulating with the officers, and urging them by their patriotism and personal regard for him, not to abandon their posts. He also issued the following farewell order to the troops:

HEAD QUARTERS WESTERN DEPARTMENT,
SPRINGFIELD Mo. Nov. 2.

Soldiers of the Mississippi valley.—Agreeable to orders this day received I take leave of you; although our army has been of sudden growth we have grown up together, and I have become familiar with the brave and generous spirits which you bring to the defense of your country and which makes me anticipate for you a brilliant career. Continue as you have begun and give to my successor the same cordial and enthusiastic support with which you have encouraged me. Emulate the splendid example which you have already before you, and let me remain as I am, proud of the noble army which I had thus far helped to bring together. Soldiers—I regret to leave you—most sincerely do I thank you for the regard and confidence you have invariably shown to me. I deeply regret that I shall not have the honor to lead you to the victory which you are just about to win, but I shall claim to share with you in the joy of every triumph, and trust always to be gratefully remembered by my companions in arms. Signed,

J. C. FREMONT,
Maj. Genl. U. S. A.

The feeling ran intensely high during the whole of last evening, and there was mutiny almost everywhere. The various bands seranaded the general, and whenever he appeared he was greeted with cheers. Although after notifying Gen. Hunter, as his order directed, he had no longer command over the troops, he spent several hours in making personal examination of the ground about the city, to be prepared for a battle, and in accordance with a written request from all the brigadier generals here, he remained through the night to lead the army in case of an attack. All the troops slept on their arms, many officers remained up all night, and an attack was hourly expected; but nothing more occurred than the firing on our pickets on two different roads. The enemy are now encamped on the old Wilson creek battle ground.

Gen. Fremont is prepared to leave for St. Louis, and will go as soon as General Pope arrives, who has been sent forward and will take command till General Hunter gets here. Universal gloom prevails throughout the camps. A battle will undoubtedly occur before long. Our troops will meet the enemy firmly, but they are disheartened and have lost their enthusiasm. The body guard, who could not have been induced to remain, and who will now disband, as the terms of their enlistment permit, accompany General Fremont, and also his entire staff, including General Asboth, commander of the first division. Gen. Fremont will permit no demonstration from the troops on his departure.

BOSTON, Nov. 5.

The vote at the Massachusetts election, to-day, was remarkably small, not much over half of that of last year. The vote of Boston for governor is as follows:—Andrew, 5,917; Davis, democrat, 5,281. The vote in 52 cities and towns foot up as follows:—Andrew, 18,381; Davis, 9,211; additional towns show a majority for Andrew of about two to one. A democrat is probably elected to the senate from Boston. The legislature is strongly republican. The chief interest was in Burlingame's old district, where Sam. Hooper, republican, is elected over G. B. Upton, democrat, by 900 majority. Cha's G. Loring, of Boston, and Gov. Clifford, of New Bedford, are elected to the senate on republican ticket.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 5.

The steam gun-boat Florida, one of the naval expedition, has returned to the navy yard disabled. She left the expedition on Friday night off Cape Fear. She reports that the fleet encountered a heavy gale soon after leaving Hampton, but it died out on Wednesday, and again revived on Thursday from the southeast. On Thursday night the machinery of the Florida was disabled, but not seriously, and can be repaired in three days, when she will resume her voyage. She had no troops on board.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.

It appears from the official statement that the amount of drafts upon the treasury last month was $10,500,000, of which 6,600,-000 were drawn from New York. The unavailable bullion fund is $902,000. The total balance to the dredit of the United States treasury in the states, now under insurrectionary control, is stated at $6,500,-000, and after making a deduction for the unavailable gives the available balance $4,500,000.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Oct. 4.

Parties have again commenced cutting the telegraph wires. It was cut Sunday, and again yesterday. There has been more rioting at Harbor Grace. One policeman was killed, and others badly wounded. A man-of-war has gone there, and a detachment of troops will soon follow.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DESPATCHES.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Nov. 2.

Reliable information has been received here from different sources that Gen. Price was at Cassville on Thursday with 25,000 men, and McCulloch ten miles this side of that place with 10,000 more, with the intention of marching on Springfield and offering us battle on the old Wilson Creek grounds. McCulloch was expecting 10,000 additional troops from Arkansas. Large numbers of residents of Green, Jasper and other adjoining counties, recently joined Price's army, and many of our officers think that the rebel force now numbers nearly 60,000. Gen. Fremont has been up nearly the whole of the past five nights, making the most perfect arrangements for a battle, and the confidence of the army in him was never so great as at present.

Gens. Lane and Sturgis have arrived, and McKinstry is hourly expected.

LATER.—Nov. 3d.—Gen. Fremont and staff left for St. Louis this morning. He is accompanied by his body guard, and will reach St. Louis Wednesday.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 5.

Buckner has retired toward Bowling Green, and Stanton has gone back into Tennessee.

The federal troops in Kentucky under Sherman, are thus divided: Gen. Scharpeof commander of the eastern, Gen. McCook the central, and Gen. Crittenden the western division.

Col. Burbidge has advanced to Woodbury.

The central troops have advanced to Bacon creek, and it is thought our troops are all to assame the defensive with all security.

Southern papers say the loss of the rebels at Leesburgh fight was 300 killed and wounded.

One hundred and sixty federal prisoners from Leesburg, reached Rich Mountain on the 24th.

Richmond papers say that Gen. Evans fought at Leesburgh, contrary to orders, and is to be court-martialed; and that the federal loss at that engagement, is 2,000 killed and wounded.

The Knoxville Register says that the rebel loss at Wild Cat, was only five killed and twenty-three wounded.

Col. Fichlin asks reinforcements from Richmond, and fears the federals will cut of Prestonburg, Kentucky, from communication with Virginia.

Beauregard's official report of the battle of Manassas, says 399 rebels were killed, 1,200 wounded, and that the federals lost 4,000 killed, wounded and prisoners. He says his entire force there was 28,000, of which one-fourth only, were engaged.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.

On good authority we learn that Gen. Wool has tendered his resignation.

Gen. Heintzleman has declined hunting for stray negroes. The rebels between the Chain bridge and Miner's Hill fired on our pickets to-day. The extreme pickets of our army and the rebels, in the direction of Occaquan, had a friendly interview Sunday, one rebel, claiming to be an impressed Pennsylvanian, said many regiments had been withdrawn to Richmond, and others expected to follow.

About 14,000 Maryland voters are believed to be in the rebel army. The piece party will poll a heavy vote in the southern counties, but the Union ticket is sure to carry the state by a large majority.

The rebels are thought to be building a large number of flat boats at Quintoc creek.

Herald's dispatch.—A scout from Virginia reports Beauregard's army stationed to the right of Braddock's road, between Fairfax and Centerville, 100,000 strong, with 200 pieces of artillery, but indifferently manned and cannoniers undisciplined. The quartermaster's department is deficient in wagons and many troops barefoot. The Virginia troops are dispirited; those whose term of enlistment has expired wont re-enlist and desert every day. Scouting parties from Gen. Smith's division, in the direction of Fairfax Court House, report that the rebel pickets have advanced within a mile and a half of Vienna. A considerable rebel force is at Fairfax Court House, and rebel troops are being thrown west to the vicinity of Leesburg.

FORT MONROE, Nov. 4.

The following extract is from the Richmond Examiner of Nov. 4th, and is from the report of Capt. Hunter, dated off the coast of North Carolina, in the confederate steamer Curlew, Oct. 30th:

At dawn yesterday we started, and on our way looked in at Beacon Island, Ocean Creek, but saw nothing with certainty of the enemy at or near either point. We then started for Hatteras Inlet, when, near the position of the inner buoy, the enemy opened fire upon us from the fort and two or three of their steamers, without injuring us. In coming within easy range we sighted the rifled gun at the Harriet Lane and fired. The fort and steamers continued to fire at us as rapidly as possible. We fired six shells, and the steam gun at them five times. It is uncertain whether the enemy sustained any injury. The vandals fired 23 shells at us, only one of which came near. Feeling that I had carried out the spirit of your instructions, I withdrew and waited within half a mile of the buoy, hoping to draw the steamers outside. When we fired the steam gun the fort returned the shot. We stood back and fired another shell and took our departure. All hands displayed great enthusiasm, and seemed delighted when one steamer began moving towards us. There were at anchor inside 16 sailing vessels and 3 steamers."

The steamer Spaulding is hourly expected at Fort Monroe, and we will then have the news of the fight. Nothing has been heard from Hatteras for two weeks.

The Richmond Examiner of Nov. 4th, says the work on the Merrimac is still uncompleted, and there are great complaints of the imperfection of the iron work, as furnished by the foundry there, and adds: "It is certainly high time she was completed."

The correspondent of the Examiner complains that Gov. Letcher, who had visited the Peninsula to look after the situation, had done nothing on arriving there but eat, hunt, fish and drink.

BUFFALO, Nov. 6.

Wm. G. Fargo, democrat, is elected mayor by several hundred majority over James Adams, peoples' candidate.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6

The Tribune claims the people's ticket has carried the state by over 100,000 votes. It is probable but not certain that Wright, democrat, is elected canal commissioner to fill a vacancy in consequence of the division between the people and republicans on that office. The legislature will be almost unanimous in favor of sustaining the government. The vote in the city for Attorney General is nearly complete, Dickinson 33,753, Champlain 16,911. For canal commissioner, Brace 11,616, Talmadge 12,129, Wright, dem. 55,536, Lynch democratic candidate for sheriff is elected by about 20,000 majority. Oakly Hall peoples candidate elected district attorney by about 20,000 majority.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 6.

The 41st regiment Ohio volunteers left Camp Wood, Cleveland, this morning for Camp Dennison in Kentucky.

FORTRESS MONROE, Nov. 5.

The Spaulding has just arrived from Hatteras Inlet, bringing Col. Hawkins, who proceeded to Washington on a special boat upon business connected with his post.—The storm at Hatteras Inlet was very severe, and the recent high tides have completely overflowed the space outside the forts. A new channel is forming between the forts, and it is apprehended that they may become untenable.

About a quarter of the clothing of the 20th Indiana regiment had been landed from the Spaulding Friday night but the gale coming on with tremendous severity, was washed away. Some other stores were also landed and lost yesterday. Ten days rations for the fort were safely landed, but the Spalding brings a part of her cargo back. Five rebel steamers came near the Inlet yesterday but retired after firing a few shots. Two coal vessels carrying fuel to the fleet made Hatteras Inlet during the gale, and hoisted the signal of distress, but could not be reached by the vessels inside.

MADISON, Nov. 6.

It is now decided that the 11th regiment will not leave here until Saturday morning at 9 o'clock.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 6.

The election is progressing quietly.—Gen. Dix this morning issued instructions to the judges to allow no man who took part or bore arms in the April riots, or who refuses, when challenged, to take an oath of fidelity to the government. The whole Union ticket will of course be elected by a clear and undisputed majority of the loyal voters of the state.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Jayne's Ague Mixture

Is an infallible remedy for Fever and Ague. The experience of many years in almost every climate proves that where used strictly in accordance with the directions, it has rarely failed to cure,—not only by breaking up the chills, but by removing the morbid habits of the system, preventing a recurrence of the disease.

Fever and Ague, though not in itself dangerous, is apt, unless speedily removed, to have such a pernicious effect on the system, as to engender disorders much more baneful than itself, and which not only render the afterlife of the patient miserable, but are in themselves often fatal. A prompt and effectual remedy is therefore what is wanted, and as such DR. D. JAYNE'S AGUE MIXTURE is confidently reccommended. For sale by G. R. CURTIS,

Official Paper of the City.

The Removal of Gen. Fremont.

At last, after many weeks labor in preparing the public mind, Gen. Fremont has been removed. If this had been done after the war department had obtained satisfactory information that Fremont was either incapable or corrupt, in a quiet manner, in the usual way, the public would have been satisfied, until a court martial had revealed the whole truth. But the cowardly and sneaking manner in which charges have been made against him, by the secretary of war and his clerk Thomas, by the associated telegraphic despatches which have the sanction of a government censor, and by presses in the secrets of the war department, are evidences that the commander of the western department is the victim of a conspiracy which has long been organized to put him out of the way for some other reason than because he is incompetent. Somebody at Washington was afraid of him because he was gaining the hearts of the people by prosecuting the war with a vigor too robust and direct to suit the tortorous and compromising disposition of mere politicians. Hence his removal.

The cruel manner in which Gen. Fremont has been pursued by his enemies in the rear, while organizing his army and during his march in pursuit of his other braver and more manly foes in front, has culminated at last in depriving him of his command, just on the eve of battle. Even while the rebels attack his sentinels at night, comes an order that he must give up all his cherished plans and labors, and turn his back upon the field on which he had hoped to convict his enemies of the slanders so lavishly heaped upon him. Could they not give him this single opportunity to redeem his name from the odium cast upon it by falsehood and detraction?

The touching devotion of his army to him on this trying occasion is an evidence far more weighty as to his ability to command and of the faithful and competent discharge of his duties, than any thing else that could have been offered. His soldiers and officers know him and are good judges of capacity. And his noble appeal to them to continue their support to their new commander, (although he is a bitter enemy,) shows that he is ready now as ever to forget self, in discharging his whole duty to his country.

We deeply regret the course pursued towards Gen. Fremont. The public mind is everywhere exasperated in view of its injustice, and we much fear an injury has been inflicted upon the cause of the country which time will hardly efface. It leads us to fear that cowardice, imbecility and treachery are characteristic of at least a portion of the administration as it is now constituted. Apprehending this where can we place our confidence.

THE FREMONT PURCHASE OF ARMS.—The charge of Adjutant-General Thomas about Gen. Fremont's purchase of arms in Europe, is disposed of by a writer to the New York Tribune, who states, from positive knowledge, that the purchase was 2,000 rifles, 500 revolvers, 8 rifled cannon, with shot and shell, and 2,000,000 percussion caps; and that the rifles were so highly approved that Secretary Cameron sent an order to Mr. Adams and Mr. Dayton to buy 20,000 more of the same kind; that Mr Schuyler, the special agent afterward sent out by the government to buy arms, offered to buy 100,000 rifles of the same pattern, and did buy all he could. Also, that Gen. Fremont paid $16 for the rifles, and wanted to buy 100.000 more, and could have bought them at the same price, but was not permitted by the government; and that they have since been sold by other parties to the government at $27 each.

The arms which Gen. Fremont did buy, amounted to but $50,000 or $60,000; and an Adjutant-General ought to know better than to give currency in his official report to a story that somebody wrote, that on this purchase his share of the profits was $30,000.—Cincinnati Gazette.

Adjutant General Thomas reports that Gen. Fremont has taken the field with insufficient equipment, clothing and transportation for his army. This is a singular specification in a charge against Gen. Fremont. No one knows better than Adjutant General Thomas and the Secretary of War why Gen. Fremont's army is unprovided with the means necessary to its success and efficiency. For two months Gen. Fremont has had no money to purchase equipments; and the department was careful that he should have no credit by telegraphing all over the country that his requisitions had been rejected. If anybody is to be removed for the insufficient equipment of Gen. Fremont's army, or for its suffering or failure in consequence of its want of clothing or means of transportation, it is not Gen. Fremont who should suffer the penalty. Another instance which shows how the zeal of Adjutant General Thomas causes him to scatter in his charges is one which accuses Gen. Fremont in one place of hurrying the purchase and inspection of mules, and in another charges him with incompetency for ordering Gen. Hunter to move with forty-one wagons, when Gen. Hunter had but forty mules.—Cincinnati Gazette.

"Henrietta," said a landlord to his new girl, "when there's bad news from Washington, or any bad news, particularly private afflictions, always let the boarders know it before dinner. It may seem strange to you, Henrietta, but such little things make a great difference in eating in the course of a year."

The Election—City and County.

The election was very quiet, and a light vote polled in every locality we have heard from. In the city the total vote is 979.—The result generally is the election of the republican county ticket, every republican assemblyman, and a majority for the republican state ticket, the exact amount of which is not now known.

Correspondence of the Daily Gazette.

From the Eighth Regiment.

CAMP BURNSIDE,
PILOT KNOB, MO., Oct. 31.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Since writing to you last, I have learned from our chief surgeon that the rebels lost in killed at Fredericktown 300. That is what I call a pretty good two hours work. We shall never know how many wounded there were of them. The guns that were taken from them at the fight are now mounted here on the fortifications, and are pointed towards Hardee & Co., who the people here say are coming down on us with 25,000 men soon; but we have some awful rumors here occasionally, and do not of course believe half we hear.

The men are all in good spirits to-day; the regiment is being paid off as I am writing, and the boys all have plenty of money. The most of my company are preparing to send the largest part of their pay home to their families and friends.

There are four of my men in the hospital—two at St. Louis and two at Ironton. Wm. Culton and James Keley are at St. Louis with sore eyes. P. Tifft and Wm. Soper are at Ironton with the measles.—John Carney, a member of my company, was killed accidentally, on Tuesday morning, in the iron furnace here, while witnessing some portion of the machinery in operation. We buried him with military honors yesterday. Col. Murphy has been in St. Louis now for about a week figuring for something, I cannot tell what. There is some talk here of his being made a brigadier general. I hope he will be back soon and order us away from here. The men want to be moving. We have very cold nights here, and warm days; the weather is very dry.

Lieut. King is sick to-day, but nothing serious I think. I still hold my contraband. It suits him well to be a soldier.

W. B. BRITTON,
Co. G, 8th Wis. Vol.

PILOT KNOB, Nov. 1, 1861.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—We have an order to move south to-morrow, with three days' rations. The rebels are congregated again at Greenville, forty miles south of here. We are going down to have an engagement with them, if they stick. I think they will outnumber us this time, according to accounts.

The regiment was paid off yesterday; our company alone sent home twelve hundred dollars to their families and friends, which was mailed to my knowledge. One package was addressed to Thomas Croft containing $387,50, to be distributed among families in Janesville. I think the boys did well. Charles Riker received $24,26, and sent home $25 to his folks. When I return, if I ever do, I will give you an account of our expedition. I understand we are to go to Kentucky when we return. King has got well enough to accompany the expedition.

It is quite cold, and I must close. My best wishes to you all.

Yours, etc., W. B. BRITTON,
Company G, 8th Reg. W. V.

THE BALL'S BLUFF FIGHT.—A careful summing of all the soldiers and officers killed, wounded, and missing, makes the grand total 674. This is rather over one-third of the entire force engaged. The statement of the Richmond papers, that over five hundred prisoners had arrived there, is an exaggeration, a thing usual with the secession press.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 5.

This afternoon's Times has some particulars of the late fight at Gauley Bridge. The engagement was not a general battle, but rather a warm skirmish in which the enemy were repulsed with great loss. The action commenced by the rebels, who opened two batteries on our lines near Gauley Bridge, but though the firing continued all day little or no damage was done—not one man being killed. Late in the day our artillery was brought to bear, and the rebel fire was soon silenced.

A train was fired upon about the same time, some miles up the river, and three men killed. On Friday night Benham's brigade moved down the river to Gauley Bridge and ferried across in a flat boat which the rebels had previously sunk. He moved along the base of the hill upon which the rebel batteries had been planted, intending to go down as far as Loup Creek, three or four miles below, where there is a gap in the mountains, through which is a road leading to the rear of where the rebels are encamped.

Removal of Fremont.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Nov. 3.

Yesterday small bodies of the enemy came within twelve miles of us, and news was received of the approach of their advance, 28,000 strong. Preparations were making to go out and attack them, when Gen. Fremont received the unconditional order from Washington relieving him of his command. Simultaneously came the newspapers announcing the fact. The intelligence spread like wild fire throughout the camps, and created indescribable excitement and indignation. Great numbers of officers signified their intention to resign at once, and many companies laid down their arms declaring they would fight under no one but Fremont. The General spent much of the afternoon expostulating with the officers, and urging them by their patriotism and personal regard for him, not to abandon their posts. He also issued the following farewell order to the troops:

HEAD QUARTERS WESTERN DEPARTMENT,
SPRINGFIELD Mo. Nov. 2.

Soldiers of the Mississippi valley.—Agreeable to orders this day received I take leave of you; although our army has been of sudden growth we have grown up together, and I have become familiar with the brave and generous spirits which you bring to the defense of your country and which makes me anticipate for you a brilliant career. Continue as you have begun and give to my successor the same cordial and enthusiastic support with which you have encouraged me. Emulate the splendid example which you have already before you, and let me remain as I am, proud of the noble army which I had thus far helped to bring together. Soldiers—I regret to leave you—most sincerely do I thank you for the regard and confidence you have invariably shown to me. I deeply regret that I shall not have the honor to lead you to the victory which you are just about to win, but I shall claim to share with you in the joy of every triumph, and trust always to be gratefully remembered by my companions in arms. Signed,

J. C. FREMONT,
Maj. Genl. U. S. A.

The feeling ran intensely high during the whole of last evening, and there was mutiny almost everywhere. The various bands seranaded the general, and whenever he appeared he was greeted with cheers. Although after notifying Gen. Hunter, as his order directed, he had no longer command over the troops, he spent several hours in making personal examination of the ground about the city, to be prepared for a battle, and in accordance with a written request from all the brigadier generals here, he remained through the night to lead the army in case of an attack. All the troops slept on their arms, many officers remained up all night, and an attack was hourly expected; but nothing more occurred than the firing on our pickets on two different roads. The enemy are now encamped on the old Wilson creek battle ground.

Gen. Fremont is prepared to leave for St. Louis, and will go as soon as General Pope arrives, who has been sent forward and will take command till General Hunter gets here. A Universal gloom prevails throughout the camps. A battle will undoubtedly occur before long. Our troops will meet the enemy firmly, but they are disheartened and have lost their enthusiasm. The body guard, who could not have been induced to remain, and who will now disband, as the terms of their enlistment permit, accompany General Fremont, and also his entire staff, including General Asboth, commander of the first division. Gen. Fremont will permit no demonstration from the troops on his departure.

BOSTON, Nov. 5.

The vote at the Massachusetts election, to-day, was remarkably small, not much over half of that of last year. The vote of Boston for governor is as follows:—Andrew, 5,917; Davis, democrat, 5,281. The vote in 52 cities and towns foot up as follows:—Andrew, 18,381; Davis, 9,211; additional towns show a majority for Andrew of about two to one. A democrat is probably elected to the senate from Boston. The legislature is strongly republican. The chief interest was in Burlingame's old district, where Sam. Hooper, republican, is elected over G. B. Upton, democrat, by 900 majority. Cha's G. Loring, of Boston, and Gov. Clifford, of New Bedford, are elected to the senate on republican ticket.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 5.

The steam gun-boat Florida, one of the naval expedition, has returned to the navy yard disabled. She left the expedition on Friday night off Cape Fear. She reports that the fleet encountered a heavy gale soon after leaving Hampton, but it died out on Wednesday, and again revived on Thursday from the southeast. On Thursday night the machinery of the Florida was disabled, but not seriously, and can be repaired in three days, when she will resume her voyage. She had no troops on board.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.

It appears from the official statement that the amount of drafts upon the treasury last month was $10,500,000, of which 6,600,000 were drawn from New York. The unavailable bullion fund is $902,000. The total balance to the dredit of the United States treasury in the states, now under insurrectionary control, is stated at $6,500,000, and after making a deduction for the unavailable gives the available balance $4,500,000.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Oct. 4.

Parties have again commenced cutting the telegraph wires. It was cut Sunday, and again yesterday. There has been more rioting at Harbor Grace. One policeman was killed, and others badly wounded. A man-of-war has gone there, and a detachment of troops will soon follow.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DESPATCHES.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Nov. 2.

Reliable information has been received here from different sources that Gen. Price was at Cassville on Thursday with 25,000 men, and McCulloch ten miles this side of that place with 10,000 more, with the intention of marching on Springfield and offering us battle on the old Wilson Creek grounds. McCulloch was expecting 10,000 additional troops from Arkansas. Large numbers of residents of Green, Jasper and other adjoining counties, recently joined Price's army, and many of our officers think that the rebel force now numbers nearly 60,000. Gen. Fremont has been up nearly the whole of the past five nights, making the most perfect arrangements for a battle, and the confidence of the army in him was never so great as at present.

Gens. Lane and Sturgis have arrived, and McKinstry is hourly expected.

LATER.—Nov. 3d.—Gen. Fremont and staff left for St. Louis this morning. He is accompanied by his body guard, and will reach St. Louis Wednesday.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 5.

Buckner has retired toward Bowling Green, and Stanton has gone back into Tennessee.

The federal troops in Kentucky under Sherman, are thus divided: Gen. Scharpeof commander of the eastern, Gen. McCook the central, and Gen. Crittenden the western division.

Col. Burbidge has advanced to Woodbury.

The central troops have advanced to Bacon creek, and it is thought our troops are all to assume the defensive with all security.

Southern papers say the loss of the rebels at Leesburgh fight was 300 killed and wounded.

One hundred and sixty federal prisoners from Leesburg, reached Rich Mountain on the 24th.

Richmond papers say that Gen. Evans fought at Leesburgh, contrary to orders, and is to be court-martialed; and that the federal loss at that engagement, is 2,000 killed and wounded.

The Knoxville Register says that the rebel loss at Wild Cat, was only five killed and twenty-three wounded.

Col. Fichlin asks reinforcements from Richmond, and fears the federals will cut of Prestonburg, Kentucky, from communication with Virginia.

Beauregard's official report of the battle of Manassas, says 399 rebels were killed, 1,200 wounded, and that the federals lost 4,000 killed, wounded and prisoners. He says his entire force there was 28,000, of which one-fourth only, were engaged.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.

On good authority we learn that Gen. Wool has tendered his resignation.

Gen. Heintzleman has declined hunting for stray negroes. The rebels between the Chain bridge and Miner's Hill fired on our pickets to-day. The extreme pickets of our army and the rebels, in the direction of Occaquan, had a friendly interview Sunday, one rebel, claiming to be an impressed Pennsylvanian, said many regiments had been withdrawn to Richmond, and others expected to follow.

About 14,000 Maryland voters are believed to be in the rebel army. The piece party will poll a heavy vote in the southern counties, but the Union ticket is sure to carry the state by a large majority.

The rebels are thought to be building a large number of flat boats at Quintoc creek.

Herald's dispatch.—A scout from Virginia reports Beauregard's army stationed to the right of Braddock's road, between Fairfax and Centerville, 100,000 strong, with 200 pieces of artillery, but indifferently manned and cannoniers undisciplined. The quartermaster's department is deficient in wagons and many troops barefoot. The Virginia troops are dispirited; those whose term of enlistment has expired wont re-enlist and desert every day. Scouting parties from Gen. Smith's division, in the direction of Fairfax Court House, report that the rebel pickets have advanced within a mile and a half of Vienna. A considerable rebel force is at Fairfax Court House, and rebel troops are being thrown west to the vicinity of Leesburg.

FORT MONROE, Nov. 4.

The following extract is from the Richmond Examiner of Nov. 4th, and is from the report of Capt. Hunter, dated off the coast of North Carolina, in the confederate steamer Curlew, Oct. 30th:

At dawn yesterday we started, and on our way looked in at Beacon Island, Ocean Creek, but saw nothing with certainty of the enemy at or near either point. We then started for Hatteras Inlet, when, near the position of the inner buoy, the enemy opened fire upon us from the fort and two or three of their steamers, without injuring us. In coming within easy range we sighted the rifled gun at the Harriet Lane and fired. The fort and steamers continued to fire at us as rapidly as possible. We fired six shells, and the steam gun at them five times. It is uncertain whether the enemy sustained any injury. The vandals fired 23 shells at us, only one of which came near. Feeling that I had carried out the spirit of your instructions, I withdrew and waited within half a mile of the buoy, hoping to draw the steamers outside. When we fired the steam gun the fort returned the shot. We stood back and fired another shell and took our departure. All hands displayed great enthusiasm, and seemed delighted when one steamer began moving towards us. There were at anchor inside 16 sailing vessels and 3 steamers."

The steamer Spaulding is hourly expected at Fort Monroe, and we will then have the news of the fight. Nothing has been heard from Hatteras for two weeks.

The Richmond Examiner of Nov. 4th, says the work on the Merrimac is still uncompleted, and there are great complaints of the imperfection of the iron work, as furnished by the foundry there, and adds: "It is certainly high time she was completed."

The correspondent of the Examiner complains that Gov. Letcher, who had visited the Peninsula to look after the situation, had done nothing on arriving there but eat, hunt, fish and drink.

BUFFALO, Nov. 6.

Wm. G. Fargo, democrat, is elected mayor by several hundred majority over James Adams, peoples' candidate.

NEW YORK, Nov 6

The Tribune claims the people's ticket has carried the state by over 100,000 votes. It is probable but not certain that Wright, democrat, is elected canal commissioner to fill a vacancy in consequence of the division between the people and republicans on that office. The legislature will be almost unanimous in favor of sustaining the government. The vote in the city for Attorney General is nearly complete, Dickinson 33,753, Champlain 16,941. For canal commissioner, Brace 11,616, Talmadge 12,129, Wright, dem. 55,586, Lynch democaotic candidate for sheriff is elected by about 20,000 majority. Oakly Hall peoples candidate elected district attorney by about 20,000 majority.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 6.

The 41st regiment Ohio volunteers left Camp Wood, Cleveland, this morning for Camp Dennison in Kentucky.

FORTRESS MONROE, Nov. 5.

The Spaulding has just arrived from Hatteras Inlet, bringing Col. Hawkins, who proceeded to Washington on a special boat upon business connected with his post.—The storm at Hatteras Inlet was very severe, and the recent high tides have completely overflowed the space outside the forts. A new channel is forming between the forts, and it is apprehended that they may become untenable.

About a quarter of the clothing of the 20th Indiana regiment had been landed from the Spaulding Friday night but the gale coming on with tremendous severity, was washed away. Some other stores were also landed and lost yesterday. Ten days rations for the fort were safely landed, but the Spalding brings a part of her cargo back. Five rebel steamers came near the Inlet yesterday but retired after firing a few shots. Two coal vessels carrying fuel to the fleet made Hatteras Inlet during the gale, and hoisted the signal of distress, but could not be reached by the vessels inside.

MADISON, Nov. 6.

It is now decided that the 11th regiment will not leave here until Saturday morning at 9 o'clock.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 6.

The election is progressing quietly.—Gen. Dix this morning issued instructions to the judges to allow no man who took part or bore arms in the April riots, or who refuses, when challenged, to take an oath of fidelity to the government. The whole Union ticket will of course be elected by a clear and undisputed majority of the loyal voters of the state.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Jayne's Ague Mixture

Is an infallible remedy for Fever and Ague. The experience of many years in almost every climate proves that where used strictly in accordance with the directions, it has rarely failed to cure,—not only by breaking up the chills, but by removing the morbid habits of the system, preventing a recurrence of the disease.

Fever and Ague, though not in itself dangerous, is apt, unless speedily removed, to have such a pernicious effect on the system, as to engender disorders much more baneful than itself, and which not only render the afterlife of the patient miserable, but are in them selves often fatal. A prompt and effectual remedy is therefore what is wanted, and as such DR. D. JAYNE'S AGUE MIXTURE is confidently reccommended. For sale by G. R. CURTIS,

MUSICAL CONVENTION.—Remember that this convention commences next Monday evening, Nov. 11th, and closes with a concert on Thursday evening. It is a mistaken idea that it is designed only for good singers; every one interested in music can derive great benefit from it. The general cultivation of the voice receives particular attention, so that its use in speaking and reading is taught as well as in singing. The best instruction is given in articulation, and much time is devoted to style in singing. Those who have attended former conventions under Prof. Root need no urging to attend this one; but they must let their friends know the benefit and real pleasure to be derived from them. Let it be understood that this convention is designed for everyone interested in singing in this and adjoining counties. It is no exclusive affair for the benefit of Janesville singers, but for all who may attend. Come then, all who love music, and let the coming week long be remembered as the most pleasant of your lives.

CHANGE OF PROPRIETORS.—Mr. Denell, who has purchased the stock of S. C. Spaulding, has been employed for several years by Mr. Spaulding, and is a superior workman in all branches of his business. The stock of goods now offered by him is valuable and large, and the former customers of Mr. S. will find in the new proprietor an old friend and acquaintance.

The regular meeting of Water Witch No. 2 is held to-morrow evening.

The Soldiers Aid Society will meet at the house of Mrs. J. P. Dickson, on Friday, Nov. 8th, at 1 o'clock P. M. A general invitation is extended to the gentlemen to attend a "Mite Society," for the benefit of this society, at the same place on the same evening. M. F. CLARK, no5d2d Secretary.

READ YOU AFFLICTED!—Wear your old trusses, with their filthiness and chafing for life, or "Seeley's Rigg's Hard Rubber Truss" and be cured. Dr. Seeley showed cases of radical cure, 23 years' standing, at the late state fair held at Chicago, well known to the most eminent surgeons of the west, who recommend it as the only reliable truss fit for use. While at Beliot this week he received calls from four that had been radically cured by the use of this truss, being fitted at his office (194 Lake street) Chicago. Can show case of ten years' standing in Janesville, of radical cure, that he applied trusses to when here ten months ago. Those interested are invited to call and examine for themselves. Dr. Seeley will be at the "Myers' House" until Monday morning to show and supply all who may wish to see or procure this instrument.

Correspondence of the Daily Gazette.
From the Fifth Regiment.

CAMP GRIFFIN,
NEAR LEWINSVILLE, Va., Oct. 31, 1861.

DEAR GAZETTE:—Having noticed in a Gazette a few days since, the manner in which the Maine boys cut down trees, I will tell you how the Badger boys cut down the groves which shelter the retreats of the rebels. Although the Pine State boys are shrewd choppers, having been brought up with an axe in their hands, and while I would not underrate them as laborers, still, judging from what I have seen here in "Dixie," I must contend that the Badger boys are equal to, if not superior to them in that kind of business. We cut away a grove in this manner:—We first find out the direction we wish the trees to fall, then cut all of them a little more than half off, and when we have been through the grove in this manner, then at the word we start three or four trees on one side of the grove, which will all the right way, and as they fall on those trees next to them, they too fall in the required direction, and thus the whole grove goes down at once, in one impassable mass. We always try to fall all of the trees in a grove the same way, (the tops from the camp) and leave them hanging to the stumps, thus making an almost impassable barrier to any one trying to come to the camps. When we encamp in a place where there can be the least danger of the rebels coming to attack us, the first labor we perform is to fall trees in this manner, the distance of long cannon range all around the points of our encampment, where an attack could possible be made.—We have felled groves in the way I have described, and made the trees all fall from the camp, when had we fallen them one by one nearly half of them would have fallen towards it. An observer would think himself in a land of wonder were he to be looking on a grove when we cut it down—one moment he would see it all standing, the next all leveled to the earth; one moment his view would be limited by the grove, the next an almost unbounded tract of country laid open to his vision. I believe that were every regiment in Virginia to chop as much as the Fifth Wisconsin and Sixth Maine have there would not be a tree as large as a Poe handle standing in all of the "Old Dominion" in three weeks.

We have a method by which we warm our tents, now that the cold weather and fall rains render fires necessary. We dig a hole about two feet square in one corner of the tent, and from the top of it dig a trench through the tent and about four or six feet outside of it, then we cover the trench with flat stones, when they are to be found, and when not, then we take a green tree and split it open for a cover to the trench, then cover it with dirt, leaving the fireplace open; for a chimney we take a barrel and take out both heads, place it over the outer end of the trench which is left open and the machine is ready for use. Two men can make one of these fire-places or stoves (as we call them) in an hour, and thus we are enabled to keep our tents both dry and warm.

Reviews and inspections are the order of the day now, and to see some of them would do you good. We were reviewed by Gen. Smith on the 25th inst., by Gen. Hancock on the 26th, and on both occasions were highly complimented by both Generals.—To-day we are being mustered by the Lieut. Colonel of the Pennsylvania 79th regiment, and Capts. Clark, Hibbard and Berrens are mustering the other regiments in this brigade. We moved from the side hill where we first encamped, to this place on the 24th, and are now on one of the best camp grounds in this region. We have a plenty of room, and the ground is dry and sandy, and when it rains the slope of the land carries all the water off immediately. The place we left was wet and soft, and when it rained, (as it did every day we were there,) the mud would be nearly knee deep in our streets, and one would need a mud-boat to cross them in. On the afternoon of the 24th we went nearly out to Vienna, and captured eight rebels, some of the men went beyond the village, but there was no resistance offered to them. We have captured Grennell, the man who preached Jackson's funeral sermon; he offered one thousand dollars for our guide (Sage), but Sage has had the pleasure of getting him, instead of being the one captured. The health of the men here is getting better than it was one week ago, and should the present pleasant weather last, we will nearly all be in "fighting order" in a couple of weeks. FIFTH.

CAMP TREDWAY, Nov. 5, 1861.

I hereby acknowledge the receipt of a beautiful sword, belt and sash, presented by my company, for which they will receive my best respects.

F. F. STEVENS,
Capt. of Rangers, Co. F, 13th Regt.

MUSICAL CONVENTION.—Remember that this convention commences next Monday evening, Nov. 11th, and closes with a concert on Thursday evening. It is a mistaken idea that it is designed only for good singers; every one interested in music can derive great benefit from it. The general cultivation of the voice receives particular attention, so that its use in speaking and reading is taught as well as in singing. The best instruction is given in articulation, and much time is devoted to style in singing. Those who have attended former conventions under Prof. Root need no urging to attend this one; but they must let their friends know the benefit and real pleasure to be derived from them. Let it be understood that this convention is designed for every one interested in singing in this and adjoining counties. It is no exclusive affair for the benefit of Janesville singers, but for all who may attend. Come then, all who love music, and let the coming week long be remembered as the most pleasant of your lives. *

CHANGE OF PROPRIETORS.—Mr. Denell, who has purchased the stock of S. C. Spaulding, has been employed for several years by Mr. Spaulding, and is a superior workman in all branches of his business. The stock of goods now offered by him is valuable and large, and the former customers of Mr. S. will find in the new proprietor an old friend and acquaintance.

The regular meeting of Water Witch No. 2 is held to-morrow evening.

The Soldiers Aid Society will meet at the house of Mrs. J. P. Dickson, on Friday, Nov. 8th, at 1 o'clock P. M. A general invitation is extended to the gentlemen to attend a "Mite Society," for the benefit of this society, at the same place on the same evening.

READ YOU AFFLICTED!—Wear your old trusses, with their filthiness and chafing for life, or "Seeley's Rigg's Hard Rubber Truss" and be cured. Dr. Seeley showed cases of radical cure, 23 years' standing, at the late state fair held at Chicago, well known to the most eminent surgeons of the west, who recommend it as the only reliable truss fit for use. While at Beliot this week he received calls from four that had been radically cured by the use of this truss, being fitted at his office (194 Lake street) Chicago. Can show case of ten years' standing in Janesville, of radical cure, that he applied trusses to when here ten months ago. Those interested are invited to call and examine for themselves. Dr. Seeley will be at the "Myers' House" until Monday morning to show and supply all who may wish to see or procure this instrument.

Correspondence of the Daily Gazette.
From the Fifth Regiment.

CAMP GRIFFIN,
Near LEWINSVILLE, Va., Oct. 31, 1861.

DEAR GAZETTE:—Having noticed in a Gazette a few days since, the manner in which the Maine boys cut down trees, I will tell you how the Badger boys cut down the groves which shelter the retreats of the rebels. Although the Pine State boys are shrewd choppers, having been brought up with an axe in their hands, and while I would not underrate them as laborers, still, judging from what I have seen here in "Dixie," I must contend that the Badger boys are equal to, if not superior to them in that kind of business. We cut away a grove in this manner:—We first find out the direction we wish the trees to fall, then cut all of them a little more than half off, and when we have been through the grove in this manner, then at the word we start three or four trees on one side of the grove, which will fall the right way, and as they fall on those trees next to them, they too fall in the required direction, and thus the whole grove goes down at once, in one impassable mass. We always try to fall all of the trees in a grove the same way, (the tops from the camp) and leave them hanging to the stumps, thus making an almost impassable barrier to any one trying to come to the camps. When we encamp in a place where there can be the least danger of the rebels coming to attack us, the first labor we perform is to fall trees in this manner, the distance of long cannon range all around the points of our encampment, where an attack could possible be made.—We have felled groves in the way I have described, and made the trees all fall from the camp, when had we fallen them one by one nearly half of them would have fallen towards it. An observer would think himself in a land of wonder were he to be looking on a grove when we cut it down—one moment he would see it all standing, the next all leveled to the earth; one moment his view would be limited by the grove, the next an almost unbounded tract of country laid open to his vision. I believe that were every regiment in Virginia to chop as much as the Fifth Wisconsin and Sixth Maine have there would not be a tree as large as a hoe handle standing in all of the "Old Dominion" in three weeks.

We have a method by which we warm our tents, now that the cold weather and fall rains render fires necessary. We dig a hole about two feet square in one corner of the tent, and from the top of it dig a trench through the tent and about four or six feet outside of it, then we cover the trench with flat stones, when they are to be found, and when not, then we take a green tree and split it open for a cover to the trench, then cover it with dirt, leaving the fireplace open; for a chimney we take a barrel and take out both heads, place it over the outer end of the trench which is left open and the machine is ready for use. Two men can make one of these fire-places or stoves (as we call them) in an hour, and thus we are enabled to keep our tents both dry and warm.

Reviews and inspections are the order of the day now, and to see some of them would do you good. We were reviewed by Gen. Smith on the 25th inst., by Gen. Hancock on the 26th, and on both occasions were highly complimented by both Generals.—To-day we are being mustered by the Lieut. Colonel of the Pennsylvania 79th regiment, and Capts. Clark, Hibbard and Berrens are mustering the other regiments in this brigade. We moved from the side hill where we first encamped, to this place on the 24th, and are now on one of the best camp grounds in this region. We have a plenty of room, and the ground is dry and sandy, and when it rains the slope of the land carries all the water off immediately. The place we left was wet and soft, and when it rained, (as it did every day we were there,) the mud would be nearly knee deep in our streets, and one would need a mud-boat to cross them in. On the afternoon of the 24th we went nearly out to Vienna, and captured eight rebels, some of the men went beyond the village, but there was no resistance offered to them. We have captured Grennell, the man who preached Jackson's funeral sermon; he offered one thousand dollars for our guide (Sage), but Sage has had the pleasure of getting him, instead of being the one captured. The health of the men here is getting better than it was one week ago, and should the present pleasant weather last, we will nearly all be in "fighting order" in a couple of weeks.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

A Great National Work.

Something for Every Citizen, Every Fireside, Every Reader!

NO MAN, NO FAMILY, NO OFFICE SHOULD BE WITHOUT IT.

The only Correct and Complete

HISTORY OF THE WAR.

THE SOUTHERN REBELLION

and the

WAR FOR THE UNION:

A History of the

Rise and Progress of the Rebellion,

and

Consecutive Narrative of Events and Incidents, from the First Stages of the Treason Against the Republic down to the Close of the Conflict,

TOGETHER WITH IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS AND EXTRACTS FROM REMARKABLE SPEECHES.

In Weekly Parts, 32 pages, large 8vo, Price 10 Cents.

THE want of an authentic and thorough History of the Rebellion, for present reference and future preservation, is the subject of general remark. No work of that nature has yet been offered to the public, and all who wish for information are compelled to grope through the mazes of the rumors, reports, dispatches, letters and editorials of the daily newspapers, to precipitate, from its confused columns, the great facts and incidents of the struggle for the Union.

To meet this want, and to produce a work of permanent value as well as of present interest, the publisher has arranged for the issue of the history as above set forth—in a form and at a price which shall render it acceptable to all.

This history will tell the STORY AS IT IS, giving a clear, consecutive narrative of the entire movement, including all the incidents and events in their exact order, and containing the important documents and extracts from remarkable speeches. It will not be a mere diary, nor a mere enumeration of dry and naked dates, nor a compilation of slips from newspapers, but will portray in connected and interesting narrative, the revolutionary steps, as well as the measures of the government.

It will carefully digest all evidence—will sift all rumors and reports—will fix upon facts, and correct so far as possible the errors and discrepancies incident to the hasty narratives of the newspapers.

It will be written in a style suited to its theme—at once graphic, earnest and luminous, introducing such personal and social incidents as may serve to show the relations of individuals and communities to the grand events of the time.

It is true, everybody reads the newspapers, but the reports of the newspapers are the fragmentary and contradictory children of the moment, and not a correct, connected and complete history. The above publication, afterwards bound in a handsome volume, will be a book for the family, which will be valued like the records of the War of Independence, or the Life of Washington, and worthy to be kept for children and grand-children, as a memorial of the present time.

It will thus prove desirable, available and satisfactory to every citizen, every family, every office, every library: and is given to the public in the full assurance that it will command the approbation of every patriot, every Union man, every good citizen in our still Glorious Land.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

The solid service long and successfully tried, and the many advantages the Ætna Insurance Company possess in its line, should not be overlooked by those ready to insure and understanding their bests interests.

During "stringent times" the necessity for reliable Insurance becomes an imperative duty—the ability of property holders to sustain loss being then much lessened.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

Something for Every Citizen, Every Fireside,

NO MAN, NO FAMILY, NO OFFICE SHOULD BE WITHOUT IT.

The only Correct and Complete

HISTORY OF THE WAR.

THE SOUTHERN REBELLION

and the

WAR FOR THE UNION

A History of the

Rise and Progress of the Rebellion,

and

Consecutive Narrative of Events and Incidents, from the First Stages of the Treason Against the Republic down to the Close of the Conflict,

TOGETHER WITH IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS AND EXTRACTS FROM REMARKABLE SPEECHES.

In Weekly Parts, 32 pages, large 8vo, Price 10 Cents.

THE want of an authentic and thorough History of the Rebellion, for present reference and future preservation, is the subject of general remark. No work of that nature has yet been offered to the public, and all who wish for information are compelled to grope through the mazes of the rumors, reports, dispatches, letters and editorials of the daily newspapers, to precipitate, from its confused columns, the great facts and incidents of the struggle for the Union.

To meet this want, and to produce a work of permanent value as well as of present interest, the publisher has arranged for the issue of the history as above set forth—in a form and at a price which shall render it acceptable to all.

This history will tell the STORY AS IT IS, giving a clear, consecutive narrative of the entire movement, including all the incidents and events in their exact order, and containing the important documents and extracts from remarkable speeches. It will not be a mere diary, nor a mere enumeration of dry and naked dates, nor a compilation of slips from newspapers, but will portray in connected and interesting narrative, the revolutionary steps, as well as the measures of the government.

It will carefully digest all evidence—will sift all rumors and reports—will fix upon facts, and correct so far as possible the errors and discrepancies incident to the hasty narratives of the newspapers.

It will be written in a style suited to its theme—at once graphic, earnest and luminous, introducing such personal and social incidents as may serve to show the relations of individuals and communities to the grand events of the time.

It is true, everybody reads the newspapers, but the reports of the newspapers are the fragmentary and contradictory children of the moment, and not a correct, connected and complete history. The above publication, afterwards bound in a handsome volume, will be a book for the family, which will be valued like the records of the War of Independence, or the Life of Washington, and worthy to be kept for children and grand-children, as a memorial of the present time.

It will thus prove desirable, available and satisfactory to every citizen, every family, every office, every library: and is given to the public in the full assurance that it will command the approbation of every patriot, every Union man, every good citizen in our still Glorious Land.

GREAT REDUCTION

—IN—

The Prices

—OF—

SINGER & CO.'S

STANDARD MACHINES,

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $75.

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis.

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

The Removal of Gen. Fremont.

At last, after many weeks labor in preparing the public mind, Gen. Fremont has been removed. If this had been done after the war department had obtained satisfactory information that Fremont was either incapable or corrupt, in a quiet manner, in the usual way, the public would have been satisfied, until a court martial had revealed the whole truth. But the cowardly and sneaking manner in which charges have been made against him, by the secretary of war and his clerk Thomas, by the associated telegraphic despatches which have the sanction of a government censor, and by presses in the secrets of the war department, are evidences that the commander of the western department is the victim of a conspiracy which has long been organized to put him out of the way for some other reason than because he is incompetent. Somebody at Washington was afraid of him because he was gaining the hearts of the people by prosecuting the war with a vigor too robust and direct to suit the tortuous and compromising disposition of mere politicians. Hence his removal.

The cruel manner in which Gen. Fremont has been pursued by his enemies in the rear, while organizing his army and during his march in pursuit of his other braver and more manly foes in front, has culminated at last in depriving him of his command; just on the eve of battle. Even while the rebels attack his sentinels at night, comes an order that he must give up all his cherished plans and labors, and turn his back upon the field on which he had hoped to convict his enemies of the slanders so lavishly heaped upon him. Could they not give him this single opportunity to redeem his name from the odium cast upon it by falsehood and detraction?

The touching devotion of his army to him on this trying occasion is an evidence far more weighty as to his ability to command and of the faithful and competent discharge of his duties, than any thing else that could have been offered. His soldiers and officers know him and are good judges of capacity. And his noble appeal to them to continue their support to their new commander, (although he is a bitter enemy,) shows that he is ready now as ever to forget self, in discharging his whole duty to his country.

We deeply regret the course pursued towards Gen. Fremont. The public mind is everywhere exasperated in view of its injustice, and we much fear an injury has been inflicted upon the cause of the country which time will hardly efface. It leads us to fear that cowardice, imbecility and treachery are characteristics of at least a portion of the administration as it is now constituted. Apprehending this where can we place our confidence.

THE FREMONT PURCHASE OF ARMS.—The charge of Adjutant-General Thomas about Gen. Fremont's purchase of arms in Europe, is disposed of by a writer to the New York Tribune, who states, from positive knowledge, that the purchase was 2,000 rifles, 500 revolvers, 8 rifled cannon, with shot and shell, and 2,000,000 percussion caps; and that the rifles were so highly approved that Secretary Cameron sent an order to Mr. Adams and Mr. Dayton to buy 20,000 more of the same kind; that Mr Schuyler, the special agent afterward sent out by the government to buy arms, offered to buy 100,000 rifles of the same pattern, and did buy all he could. Also, that Gen. Fremont paid $16 for the rifles, and wanted to buy 100.000 more, and could have bought them at the same price, but was not permitted by the government; and that they have since been sold by other parties to the government at $27 each.

The arms which Gen. Fremont did buy, amounted to but $50,000 or $60,000; and an Adjutant-General ought to know better than to give currency in his official report to a story that somebody wrote, that on this purchase his share of the profits was $30,000.—Cincinnati Gazette.

Adjutant General Thomas reports that Gen. Fremont has taken the field with insufficient equipment, clothing and transportation for his army. This is a singular specification in a charge against Gen. Fremont. No one knows better than Adjutant General Thomas and the Secretary of War why Gen. Fremont's army is unprovided with the means necessary to its success and efficiency. For two months Gen. Fremont has had no money to purchase equipments; and the department was careful that he should have no credit by telegraphing all over the country that his requisitions had been rejected. If anybody is to be removed for the insufficient equipment of Gen. Fremont's army, or for its suffering or failure in consequence of its want of clothing or means of transportation, it is not Gen. Fremont who should suffer the penalty. Another instance which shows how the zeal of Adjutant General Thomas causes him to scatter in his charges is one which accuses Gen. Fremont in one place of hurrying the purchase and inspection of mules, and in another charges him with incompetency for ordering Gen. Hunter to move with forty-one wagons, when Gen. Hunter had but forty mules.—Cincinnati Gazette.

"Henrietta," said a landlord to his new girl, "when there's bad news from Washington, or any bad news, particularly private afflictions, always let the boarders know it before dinner. It may seem strange to you, Henrietta, but such little things make a great difference in eating in the course of a year."

The Election—City and County.

The election was very quiet, and a light vote polled in every locality we have heard from. In the city the total vote is 979.—The result generally is the election of the republican county ticket, every republican assemblyman, and a majority for the republican state ticket, the exact amount of which is not now known.

Correspondence of the Daily Gazette.

From the Eighth Regiment.

CAMP BURNSIDE,
PILOT KNOB, MO., Oct. 31.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Since writing to you last, I have learned from our chief surgeon that the rebels lost in killed at Fredericktown 300. That is what I call a pretty good two hours work. We shall never know how many wounded there were of them. The guns that were taken from them at the fight are now mounted here on the fortifications, and are pointed towards Hardee & Co., who the people here say are coming down on us with 25,000 men soon; but we have some awful rumors here occasionally, and do not of course believe half we hear.

The men are all in good spirits to-day; the regiment is being paid off as I am writing, and the boys all have plenty of money. The most of my company are preparing to send the largest part of their pay home to their families and friends.

There are four of my men in the hospital—two at St. Louis and two at Ironton. Wm. Culton and James Keley are at St. Louis with sore eyes. P. Tifft and Wm. Soper are at Ironton with the measles.—John Carney, a member of my company, was killed accidentally, on Tuesday morning, in the iron furnace here, while witnessing some portion of the machinery in operation. We buried him with military honors yesterday. Col. Murphy has been in St. Louis now for about a week figuring for something, I cannot tell what. There is some talk here of his being made a brigadier general. I hope he will be back soon and order us away from here. The men want to be moving. We have very cold nights here, and warm days; the weather is very dry.

Lieut. King is sick to-day, but nothing serious I think. I still hold my contraband. It suits him well to be a soldier.

W. B. BRITTON,
Co. G, 8th Wis. Vol.

PILOT KNOB, Nov. 1, 1861.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—We have an order to move south to-morrow, with three days' rations. The rebels are congregated again at Greenville, forty miles south of here. We are going down to have an engagement with them, if they stick. I think they will outnumber us this time, according to accounts.

The regiment was paid off yesterday; our company alone sent home twelve hundred dollars to their families and friends, which was mailed to my knowledge. One package was addressed to Thomas Croft containing $387,50, to be distributed among families in Janesville. I think the boys did well. Charles Riker received $24,26, and sent home $25 to his folks. When I return, if I ever do, I will give you an account of our expedition. I understand we are to go to Kentucky when we return. King has got well enough to accompany the expedition.

It is quite cold, and I must close. My best wishes to you all.

Yours, etc., W. B. BRITTON,
Company G, 8th Reg. W. V.

THE BALL'S BLUFF FIGHT.—A careful summing of all the soldiers and officers killed, wounded, and missing, makes the grand total 674. This is rather over one-third of the entire force engaged. The statement of the Richmond papers, that over five hundred prisoners had arrived there, is an exaggeration, a thing usual with the secession press.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 5.

This afternoon's Times has some particulars of the late fight at Gauley Bridge. The engagement was not a general battle, but rather a warm skirmish in which the enemy were repulsed with great loss. The action commenced by the rebels, who opened two batteries on our lines near Gauley Bridge, but though the firing continued all day little or no damage was done—not one man being killed. Late in the day our artillery was brought to bear, and the rebel fire was soon silenced.

A train was fired upon about the same time, some miles up the river, and three men killed. On Friday night Benham's brigade moved down the river to Gauley Bridge and ferried across in a flat boat which the rebels had previously sunk. He moved along the base of the hill upon which the rebel batteries had been planted, intending to go down as far as Loup Creek, three or four miles below, where there is a gap in the mountains, through which is a road leading to the rear of where the rebels are encamped.

Removal of Fremont.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Nov. 3.

Yesterday small bodies of the enemy came within twelve miles of us, and news was received of the approach of their advance, 28,000 strong. Preparations were making to go out and attack them, when Gen. Fremont received the unconditional order from Washington relieving him of his command. Simultaneously came the newspapers announcing the fact. The intelligence spread like wild fire throughout the camps, and created indescribable excitement and indignation. Great numbers of officers signified their intention to resign at once, and many companies laid down their arms declaring they would fight under no one but Fremont. The General spent much of the afternoon expostulating with the officers, and urging them by their patriotism and personal regard for him, not to abandon their posts. He also issued the following farewell order to the troops:

HEAD QUARTERS WESTERN DEPARTMENT,
SPRINGFIELD MO. NOV. 2.

Soldiers of the Mississippi valley.—Agreeable to orders this day received I take leave of you; although our army has been of sudden growth we have grown up together, and I have become familiar with the brave and generous spirits which you bring to the defense of your country and which makes me anticipate for you a brilliant career. Continue as you have begun and give to my successor the same cordial and enthusiastic support with which you have encouraged me. Emulate the splendid example which you have already before you, and let me remain as I am, proud of the noble army which I had thus far helped to bring together. Soldiers—I regret to leave you—most sincerely do I thank you for the regard and confidence you have invariably shown to me. I deeply regret that I shall not have the honor to lead you to the victory which you are just about to win, but I shall claim to share with you in the joy of every triumph, and trust always to be gratefully remembered by my companions in arms. Signed,

J. C. FREMONT,
Maj. Genl. U. S. A.

The feeling ran intensely high during the whole of last evening, and there was mutiny almost everywhere. The various bands seranaded the general, and whenever he appeared he was greeted with cheers. Although after notifying Gen. Hunter, as his order directed, he had no longer command over the troops, he spent several hours in making personal examination of the ground about the city, to be prepared for a battle, and in accordance with a written request from all the brigadier generals here, he remained through the night to lead the army in case of an attack. All the troops slept on their arms, many officers remained up all night, and an attack was hourly expected; but nothing more occurred than the firing on our pickets on two different roads. The enemy are now encamped on the old Wilson creek battle ground.

Gen. Fremont is prepared to leave for St. Louis, and will go as soon as General Pope arrives, who has been sent forward and will take command till General Hunter gets here. Universal gloom prevails throughout the camps. A battle will undoubtedly occur before long. Our troops will meet the enemy firmly, but they are disheartened and have lost their enthusiasm. The body guard, who could not have been induced to remain, and who will now disband, as the terms of their enlistment permit, accompany General Fremont, and also his entire staff, including General Asboth, commander of the first division. Gen. Fremont will permit no demonstration from the troops on his departure.

BOSTON, Nov. 5.

The vote at the Massachusetts election, to-day, was remarkably small, not much over half of that of last year. The vote of Boston for governor is as follows:—Andrew, 5,917; Davis, democrat, 5,281. The vote in 52 cities and towns foot up as follows:—Andrew, 18,381; Davis, 9,211; additional towns show a majority for Andrew of about two to one. A democrat is probably elected to the senate from Boston. The legislature is strongly republican. The chief interest was in Burlingame's old district, where Sam. Hooper, republican, is elected over G. B. Upton, democrat, by 900 majority. Cha's G. Loring, of Boston, and Gov. Clifford, of New Bedford, are elected to the senate on republican ticket.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 5.

The steam gun-boat Florida, one of the naval expedition, has returned to the navy yard disabled. She left the expedition on Friday night off Cape Fear. She reports that the fleet encountered a heavy gale soon after leaving Hampton, but it died out on Wednesday, and again revived on Thursday from the southeast. On Thursday night the machinery of the Florida was disabled, but not seriously, and can be repaired in three days, when she will resume her voyage. She had no troops on board.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.

It appears from the official statement that the amount of drafts upon the treasury last month was $10,500,000, of which 6,600,000 were drawn from New York. The unavailable bullion fund is $902,000. The total balance to the dredit of the United States treasury in the states, now under insurrectionary control, is stated at $6,500,000, and after making a deduction for the unavailable gives the available balance $4,500,000.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Oct. 4.

Parties have again commenced cutting the telegraph wires. It was cut Sunday, and again yesterday. There has been more rioting at Harbor Grace. One policeman was killed, and others badly wounded. A man-of-war has gone there, and a detachment of troops will soon follow.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DESPATCHES.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Nov. 2.

Reliable information has been received here from different sources that Gen. Price was at Cassville on Thursday with 25,000 men, and McCulloch ten miles this side of that place with 10,000 more, with the intention of marching on Springfield and offering us battle on the old Wilson Creek grounds. McCulloch was expecting 10,000 additional troops from Arkansas. Large numbers of residents of Green, Jasper and other adjoining counties, recently joined Price's army, and many of our officers think that the rebel force now numbers nearly 60,000. Gen. Fremont has been up nearly the whole of the past five nights, making the most perfect arrangements for a battle, and the confidence of the army in him was never so great as at present.

Gens. Lane and Sturgis have arrived, and McKinstry is hourly expected.

LATER.—Nov. 3d.—Gen. Fremont and staff left for St. Louis this morning. He is accompanied by his body guard, and will reach St. Louis Wednesday.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 5.

Buckner has retired toward Bowling Green, and Stanton has gone back into Tennessee.

The federal troops in Kentucky under Sherman, are thus divided: Gen. Scharpeof commander of the eastern, Gen. McCook the central, and Gen. Crittenden the western division.

Col. Burbidge has advanced to Woodbury.

The central troops have advanced to Bacon creek, and it is thought our troops are all to assume the defensive with all security.

Southern papers say the loss of the rebels at Leesburgh fight was 300 killed and wounded.

One hundred and sixty federal prisoners from Leesburg, reached Rich Mountain on the 24th.

Richmond papers say that Gen. Evans fought at Leesburgh, contrary to orders, and is to be court-martialed; and that the federal loss at that engagement, is 2,000 killed and wounded.

The Knoxville Register says that the rebel loss at Wild Cat, was only five killed and twenty-three wounded.

Col. Fichlin asks reinforcements from Richmond, and fears the federals will cut of Prestonburg, Kentucky, from communication with Virginia.

Beauregard's official report of the battle of Manassas, says 399 rebels were killed, 1,200 wounded, and that the federals lost 4,000 killed, wounded and prisoners. He says his entire force there was 28,000, of which one-fourth only, were engaged.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.

On good authority we learn that Gen. Wool has tendered his resignation.

Gen. Heintzleman has declined hunting for stray negroes. The rebels between the Chain bridge and Miner's Hill fired on our pickets to-day. The extreme pickets of our army and the rebels, in the direction of Occaquan, had a friendly interview Sunday, one rebel, claiming to be an impressed Pennsylvanian, said many regiments had been withdrawn to Richmond, and others expected to follow.

About 14,000 Maryland voters are believed to be in the rebel army. The piece party will poll a heavy vote in the southern counties, but the Union ticket is sure to carry the state by a large majority.

The rebels are thought to be building a large number of flat boats at Quintoc creek.

Herald's dispatch.—A scout from Virginia reports Beauregard's army stationed to the right of Braddock's road, between Fairfax and Centerville, 100,000 strong, with 200 pieces of artillery, but indifferently manned and cannoniers undisciplined. The quartermaster's department is deficient in wagons and many troops barefoot. The Virginia troops are dispirited; those whose term of enlistment has expired wont re-enlist and desert every day. Scouting parties from Gen. Smith's division, in the direction of Fairfax Court House, report that the rebel pickets have advanced within a mile and a half of Vienna. A considerable rebel force is at Fairfax Court House, and rebel troops are being thrown west to the vicinity of Leesburg.

FORT MONROE, Nov. 4.

The following extract is from the Richmond Examiner of Nov. 4th, and is from the report of Capt. Hunter, dated off the coast of North Carolina, in the confederate steamer Curlew, Oct. 30th:

At dawn yesterday we started, and on our way looked in at Beacon Island, Ocean Creek, but saw nothing with certainty of the enemy at or near either point. We then started for Hatteras Inlet, when, near the position of the inner buoy, the enemy opened fire upon us from the fort and two or three of their steamers, without injuring us. In coming within easy range we sighted the rifled gun at the Harriet Lane and fired. The fort and steamers continued to fire at us as rapidly as possible. We fired six shells, and the steam gun at them five times. It is uncertain whether the enemy sustained any injury. The vandals fired 23 shells at us, only one of which came near. Feeling that I had carried out the spirit of your instructions, I withdrew and waited within half a mile of the buoy, hoping to draw the steamers outside. When we fired the steam gun the fort returned the shot. We stood back and fired another shell and took our departure. All hands displayed great enthusiasm, and seemed delighted when one steamer began moving towards us. There were at anchor inside 16 sailing vessels and 3 steamers."

The steamer Spaulding is hourly expected at Fort Monroe, and we will then have the news of the fight. Nothing has been heard from Hatteras for two weeks.

The Richmond Examiner of Nov. 4th, says the work on the Merrimac is still uncompleted, and there are great complaints of the imperfection of the iron work, as furnished by the foundry there, and adds: "It is certainly high time she was completed."

The correspondent of the Examiner complains that Gov. Letcher, who had visited the Peninsula to look after the situation, had done nothing on arriving there but eat, hunt, fish and drink.

BUFFALO, Nov. 6.

Wm. G. Fargo, democrat, is elected mayor by several hundred majority over James Adams, peoples' candidate.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6

The Tribune claims the people's ticket has carried the state by over 100,000 votes. It is probable but not certain that Wright, democrat, is elected canal commissioner to fill a vacancy in consequence of the division between the people and republicans on that office. The legislature will be almost unanimous in favor of sustaining the government. The vote in the city for Attorney General is nearly complete, Dickinson 33,753, Champlain 16,941. For canal commissioner, Brace 11,616, Talmadge 12,129, Wright, dem. 55,586, Lynch democaotic candidate for sheriff is elected by about 20,000 majority. Oakly Hall peoples candidate elected district attorney by about 20,000 majority.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 6.

The 41st regiment Ohio volunteers left Camp Wood, Cleveland, this morning for Camp Dennison in Kentucky.

FORTRESS MONROE, Nov. 5.

The Spaulding has just arrived from Hatteras Inlet, bringing Col. Hawkins, who proceeded to Washington on a special boat upon business connected with his post.—The storm at Hatteras Inlet was very severe, and the recent high tides have completely overflowed the space outside the forts. A new channel is forming between the forts, and it is apprehended that they may become untenable.

About a quarter of the clothing of the 20th Indiana regiment had been landed from the Spaulding Friday night but the gale coming on with tremendous severity, was washed away. Some other stores were also landed and lost yesterday. Ten days rations for the fort were safely landed, but the Spalding brings a part of her cargo back. Five rebel steamers came near the Inlet yesterday but retired after firing a few shots. Two coal vessels carrying fuel to the fleet made Hatteras Inlet during the gale, and hoisted the signal of distress, but could not be reached by the vessels inside.

MADISON, Nov. 6.

It is now decided that the 11th regiment will not leave here until Saturday morning at 9 o'clock.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 6.

The election is progressing quietly.—Gen. Dix this morning issued instructions to the judges to allow no man who took part or bore arms in the April riots, or who refuses, when challenged, to take an oath of fidelity to the government. The whole Union ticket will of course be elected by a clear and undisputed majority of the loyal voters of the state.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Jayne's Ague Mixture

Is an infallible remedy for Fever and Ague. The experience of many years in almost every climate proves that where used strictly in accordance with the directions, it has rarely failed to cure,—not only by breaking up the chills, but by removing the morbid habits of the system, preventing a recurrence of the disease.

Fever and Ague, though not in itself dangerous, is apt, unless speedily removed, to have such a pernicious effect on the system, as to engender disorders much more baneful than itself, and which not only render the afterlife of the patient miserable, but are in themselves often fatal. A prompt and effectual remedy is therefore what is wanted, and as such DR. D. JAYNE'S AGUE MIXTURE is confidently reccommended. For sale by G. R. CURTIS,

MUSICAL CONVENTION.—Remember that this convention commences next Monday evening, Nov. 11th, and closes with a concert on Thursday evening. It is a mistaken idea that it is designed only for good singers; every one interested in music can derive great benefit from it. The general cultivation of the voice receives particular attention, so that its use in speaking and reading is taught as well as in singing. The best instruction is given in articulation, and much time is devoted to style in singing. Those who have attended former conventions under Prof. Root need no urging to attend this one; but they must let their friends know the benefit and real pleasure to be derived from them. Let it be understood that this convention is designed for every one interested in singing in this and adjoining counties. It is no exclusive affair for the benefit of Janesville singers, but for all who may attend. Come then, all who love music, and let the coming week long be remembered as the most pleasant of your lives. *

CHANGE OF PROPRIETORS.—Mr. Denell, who has purchased the stock of S. C. Spaulding, has been employed for several years by Mr. Spaulding, and is a superior workman in all branches of his business. The stock of goods now offered by him is valuable and large, and the former customers of Mr. S. will find in the new proprietor an old friend and acquaintance.

The regular meeting of Water Witch No. 2 is held to-morrow evening.

The Soldiers Aid Society will meet at the house of Mrs. J. P. Dickson, on Friday, Nov. 8th, at 1 o'clock P. M. A general invitation is extended to the gentlemen to attend a "Mite Society," for the benefit of this society, at the same place on the same evening.

READ YOU AFFLICTED!—Wear your old trusses, with their filthiness and chafing for life, or "Seeley's Rigg's Hard Rubber Truss" and be cured. Dr. Seeley showed cases of radical cure, 23 years' standing, at the late state fair held at Chicago, well known to the most eminent surgeons of the west, who recommend it as the only reliable truss fit for use. While at Beliot this week he received calls from four that had been radically cured by the use of this truss, being fitted at his office (194 Lake street) Chicago. Can show case of ten years' standing in Janesville, of radical cure, that he applied trusses to when here ten months ago. Those interested are invited to call and examine for themselves. Dr. Seeley will be at the "Myers' House" until Monday morning to show and supply all who may wish to see or procure this instrument.

Correspondence of the Daily Gazette.
From the Fifth Regiment.

CAMP GRIFFIN,
Near LEWINSVILLE, Va., Oct. 31, 1861.

DEAR GAZETTE:—Having noticed in a Gazette a few days since, the manner in which the Maine boys cut down trees, I will tell you how the Badger boys cut down the groves which shelter the retreats of the rebels. Although the Pine State boys are shrewd choppers, having been brought up with an axe in their hands, and while I would not underrate them as laborers, still, judging from what I have seen here in "Dixie," I must contend that the Badger boys are equal to, if not superior to them in that kind of business. We cut away a grove in this manner:—We first find out the direction we wish the trees to fall, then cut all of them a little more than half off, and when we have been through the grove in this manner, then at the word we start three or four trees on one side of the grove, which will fall the right way, and as they fall on those trees next to them, they too fall in the required direction, and thus the whole grove goes down at once, in one impassable mass. We always try to fall all of the trees in a grove the same way, (the tops from the camp) and leave them hanging to the stumps, thus making an almost impassable barrier to any one trying to come to the camps. When we encamp in a place where there can be the least danger of the rebels coming to attack us, the first labor we perform is to fall trees in this manner, the distance of long cannon range all around the points of our encampment, where an attack could possible be made.—We have felled groves in the way I have described, and made the trees all fall from the camp, when had we fallen them one by one nearly half of them would have fallen towards it. An observer would think himself in a land of wonder were he to be looking on a grove when we cut it down—one moment he would see it all standing, the next all leveled to the earth; one moment his view would be limited by the grove, the next an almost unbounded tract of country laid open to his vision. I believe that were every regiment in Virginia to chop as much as the Fifth Wisconsin and Sixth Maine have there would not be a tree as large as a hoe handle standing in all of the "Old Dominion" in three weeks.

We have a method by which we warm our tents, now that the cold weather and fall rains render fires necessary. We dig a hole about two feet square in one corner of the tent, and from the top of it dig a trench through the tent and about four or six feet outside of it, then we cover the trench with flat stones, when they are to be found, and when not, then we take a green tree and split it open for a cover to the trench, then cover it with dirt, leaving the fireplace open; for a chimney we take a barrel and take out both heads, place it over the outer end of the trench which is left open and the machine is ready for use. Two men can make one of these fire-places or stoves (as we call them) in an hour, and thus we are enabled to keep our tents both dry and warm.

Reviews and inspections are the order of the day now, and to see some of them would do you good. We were reviewed by Gen. Smith on the 25th inst., by Gen. Hancock on the 26th, and on both occasions were highly complimented by both Generals.—To-day we are being mustered by the Lieut. Colonel of the Pennsylvania 79th regiment, and Capts. Clark, Hibbard and Berrens are mustering the other regiments in this brigade. We moved from the side hill where we first encamped, to this place on the 24th, and are now on one of the best camp grounds in this region. We have a plenty of room, and the ground is dry and sandy, and when it rains the slope of the land carries all the water off immediately. The place we left was wet and soft, and when it rained, (as it did every day we were there,) the mud would be nearly knee deep in our streets, and one would need a mud-boat to cross them in. On the afternoon of the 24th we went nearly out to Vienna, and captured eight rebels, some of the men went beyond the village, but there was no resistance offered to them. We have captured Grennell, the man who preached Jackson's funeral sermon; he offered one thousand dollars for our guide (Sage), but Sage has had the pleasure of getting him, instead of being the one captured. The health of the men here is getting better than it was one week ago, and should the present pleasant weather last, we will nearly all be in "fighting order" in a couple of weeks.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
Cash Capital over - - $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

The only Correct and Complete

HISTORY OF THE WAR.

THE SOUTHERN REBELLION

and the

WAR FOR THE UNION:

A History of the

Rise and Progress of the Rebellion,

and

Consecutive Narrative of Events and Incidents, from the First Stages of the Treason Against the Republic down to the Close of the Conflict,

TOGETHER WITH IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS AND EXTRACTS FROM REMARKABLE SPEECHES.

In Weekly Parts, 32 pages, large 8vo, Price 10 Cents.

THE want of an authentic and thorough History of the Rebellion, for present reference and future preservation, is the subject of general remark. No work of that nature has yet been offered to the public, and all who wish for information are compelled to grope through the mazes of the rumors, reports, dispatches, letters and editorials of the daily newspapers, to precipitate, from its confused columns, the great facts and incidents of the struggle for the Union.

To meet this want, and to produce a work of permanent value as well as of present interest, the publisher has arranged for the issue of the history as above set forth—in a form and at a price which shall render it acceptable to all.

This history will tell the STORY AS IT IS, giving a clear, consecutive narrative of the entire movement, including all the incidents and events in their exact order, and containing the important documents and extracts from remarkable speeches. It will not be a mere diary, nor a mere enumeration of dry and naked dates, nor a compilation of slips from newspapers, but will portray in connected and interesting narrative, the revolutionary steps, as well as the measures of the government.

It will carefully digest all evidence—will sift all rumors and reports—will fix upon facts, and correct so far as possible the errors and discrepancies incident to the hasty narratives of the newspapers.

It will be written in a style suited to its theme—at once graphic, earnest and luminous, introducing such personal and social incidents as may serve to show the relations of individuals and communities to the grand events of the time.

It is true, everybody reads the newspapers, but the reports of the newspapers are the fragmentary and contradictory children of the moment, and not a correct, connected and complete history. The above publication, afterwards bound in a handsome volume, will be a book for the family, which will be valued like the records of the War of Independence, or the Life of Washington, and worthy to be kept for children and grand-children, as a memorial of the present time.

It will thus prove desirable, available and satisfactory to every citizen, every family, every office, every library: and is given to the public in the full assurance that it will command the approbation of every patriot, every Union man, every good citizen in our still Glorious Land.
